REASONS FOR OBJECTIONS

The trustee is objecting to the debtors' claimed exemption in order to preserve his rights to object when more information is known to the trustee about the debtors' assets which are claimed to be exempt. Specifically, these objections are as follows:

1. To the extent that the debtors are attempting to claim an exemption in excess of the value permitted either by federal or state law, the trustee objects to the assertion of such an exemption;

1 more specifically, d(5) is limited to one half of the unused d(1). However, the debtors have
2 claimed d(1) in the amount of $40,711, leaving only $5,239 available for d(5), plus the wildcard
3 of $2,450, for a total of $7,689. The amended exemptions claim a total of $24,450 in d(5), an 4 excess of $17,761.
